The Event of the Week.

Col. and Mrs. Holmes entertained at a musicale at Amelia Palace on Monday evening, and the affair was one of the great successes of the season.

The versatile Jonas, the celebrated pianist, Mrs. Jay T. Harris, Miss Luella Ferrin, Mr. Goddard and Mr. McClellan combined to make the evening one to date time from in Salt Lake's musical events.

The decorations were of American Beauty roses, and scarlet and white carnations, and the effect was delightful. Some of the handsomest gowns worn this season made their appearance. Among the most striking, besides that of the hostess were worn by Mrs. Ferry, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Lamb, Miss Burke and Miss McMillan.

Luncheons and Dinners.

Capt. and Mrs. Sturgiss gave a reception and dancing party at the Post on Thursday evening. It was a delightful affair, and besides the officers and ladies at the Fort a large number of their friends in town enjoyed the evening.

Have you seen the new miniature suit case candy boxes? They're awfully swell, and the designer did a keen trick when he fashioned the little card on the handle for the lady's name.

One of the social events of the early summer season will be the marriage of Miss Eloise Freeman Rancke and Mr. Mortimer Senter Allen, which will take place in June.

Mrs. Charles Read will give a musicale next Monday evening. Those who will take part are: Mrs. Ferry, Mrs. Plummer, Miss Colman, and Dr. Rykert.

Buffet lunch will be served at the Country Club next Friday from 12:30 to 2:30.

The invitations for the Dern-Cunningham wedding were issued last Wednesday.

GOLF.

New players at the Country Club are numerous this spring. Under the clever tutelage of Mr. Leonard some of them are improving rapidly. All of them are, er, perniciously active. Therefore and accordingly, the humble filler-up of this corner of the weekly would have some heart to heart talk with them.

Give the people playing ahead of you a show. Undoubtedly they make a holy show of themselves sometimes, but give them the time limit, anyway. Attention is sorrowfully but firmly called to the following golf rules:

1.—A single player has no standing and must always give way to a properly constituted match.

3.—No player should play from the tee until the party in front have played their second strokes and are out of range, nor play up to the putting green until the party in front have holed out and moved away.

Lords and ladies, interpret rule three liberally. Wait until the players ahead are out of shooting distance. Thus will much profanity be avoided and the game flourish.

Scotch threesomes for ye men Saturday. Know what they are? Three ball match between teams of three, match play, nine holes to be played with each opponent, halves to be played off. If the stakes are a ball a hole, the game is liable to become a little wicked at times.

Mr. Leonard has been given sole charge of the greens, to halve and to hole, to smooth down and put in a condition whereby an eighteen-inch putt can be made at least every other time.

I. GOLFSOME.
